THE GOLD STANDARD

Main Features of the Proposed Currency Measure.

Senate Finance Committee Differs

GEN. HENDERSON TALKS ABOUT IT

as to Declaration. BILL TO BE REPORTED

An important meeting of the majority of the members of the republican House caucus committee, which prepared the currency bill at Atlantic City last summer, was held last night in Speaker-to-be Henderson's room, and it was resolved that the measure agreed upon by the committee last summer should be pressed to final action with all the vigor possible. Seven of the eleven members of the committee were present, and invitations had been sent to the other four, but they were unable to be present, sending messages, however, that they would adhere to any action taken by these who participated in the conference. Those present were Gen. Henderson, Representatives Payne, Dalzell, Morris, Curtis, Babcock and Overstreet. Another important feature of the conference last night was the decision reached by the members of the committee that in addition to the determination to undertake early and speedy action on the bill, they agreed that they would stand firm in their purpose to have gold made the standard of value. In speakgold made the standard of value. In speaking about the meeting last night, Gen. Henderson said: "One of the purposes of this informal meeting was to see whether we were all still firm in the faith; whether what had been said to us had produced any effect, or whether circumstances have arisen that would warrant us in making any changes in the bill we agreed upon at Atlantic City. No changes were made in the bill whatever, and we are all still of the bill whatever, and we are all still of the same opinion. We have gone over the bill and our memories have been refreshed.

Main Features of the Bill. The main features of the measure thus approved are as follows: An amendment to the coinage laws, making 25% grains of gold, 900 parts fine, the standard coin measure.

An amendment to the greenback reissue act of 1878 providing that those treasury notes shall be redeemed with gold, and when so redeemed shall not be reissued ex-cept in exchange for gold. This provision will prevent the operation of the endless chain which hitherto has been the mean to raid the gold reserve.

An amendment to the specific resumption act directing the maintenance of a gold re-serve of not less than $100,000,000. The maintenance of the reserve at that figure now being entirely discretionary to the Sec now being entirely discretionary to the Secretary of the Treasury.

An amendment to the national bank act, authorizing banks to be organized with a capital stock of $25,000. At present the minimum is $50,000. Another amendment to the same act authorizing banks to issue notes to the par value of the bonds they have on deposit to secure circulation. At present the limit is 90 per cent. A third amendment to this act reduces the taxation amendment to this act reduces the taxation on bank circulation to one-tenth of 1 per cent. This tax is to pay the expense of engraving and printing the notes. The present rate more than meets this expense.

Issue With Senate Committee.

The action of the committee in declaring for the gold standard in unmistakable terms throws down the gauntlet to the Senate finance committee, for that committee, in preparing the Senate bill, it is asserted, does not use the same clear language in regard to their declaration as the House committee does. The Senate com-mittee, it is claimed, accomplishes the same object, but does it in a manner not so offensive to some of the republicans who do not want the werd gold standard used. Last night Representative Cannon of Illi-nots had a talk with Gen. Henderson before the committee met, and it was said that he argued against the declaration. Mr. Cannon says he is not sure that the republicans should go so far as to take the iffirmative action to have the law declar that gold should be the standard, and it is also understood that members of the Sen-ate finance committee asked some time ago that for the sake of agreement betw the committees the House members modify that part of their bill. But when asked as to this point, Gen. Henderson said:
"Both committees are working along the line and have the same ideas, but of course there are some differences of opinion." And this is all that Gen. Henderson would say.

Refuse to Discuss the Bill. The members of the House committee still refuse to discuss the bill, and it will not be made public until after it is submitted to the full republican caucus. It is hoped that the republican members of the Senate finance committee and the House caucus some arrangement cannot be made for the committee will be able to have a joint meeting temorrow or Wednesday, to see if purpose of agreement on the bill. But whether this can be done or not, one thing is certain, and that is that the bill as reaffirmed last night will be reported to the full republican caucus of the House on Saturday.

Representative Faris of Indiana said today that from what he could judge of the sentiment among the republican members of the House, it seemed to him likely that the caucus financial measure would be passed by the House before the Christmas holidays.

TWO FINE SPECIMENS

OF PHYSICAL MANHOOD. No form of athletic exercise demands such per fect physical condition as prize fighting. Every nuscle in the body must be fully developed and supple, and the heart, lungs and stomach must act to perfection. Whether we indorse prize fighting or not, it is nevertheless interesting to know the manner by which men arrive at such physical perfection. James Jeffries, the present champion heavy weight of the world, and his gallant opponent, Tom Sharkey, in the greatest pugilistic encounte that has ever taken place, both pursued much the same course of training, and the first and most important part of this training was to get the tomach in condition, and to keep the digestion absolutely perfect, so that every muscle and nerve would be at its highest capabilities. This was not done by a secret patent medicin but both of these great pugilists used a well-known natural digestive tablet sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Despepsia Tablets, and composed of the digestive ferments which every stomach requires for healthy digestion. Champion Jeffries says: "Stuart's Dyspepsion Tablets prevent acidity, strengthen the stomach and insure perfect digestion. They keep a man in fine physical condition." Signed James J. Jef-fries, champion of the world. The gallant fighter, Sharkey, says: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets remove all discomfort after eating. They rest the stomach and restore it to a healthful condition. I heartfly recommend them.

Signed Thos. J. Sharkey.

The advantage of the daily use of Stuart's Dys pepsia Tablets is that they keep people well and ward off sickness and are equally valuable to well persons as to the dyspeptics. Another advantage is that these tablets contain no cathartics or po sons of any character, but simply digestive fer ments which are found in every healthy stomach, and when digestion is imperfect it is because the stomach lacks some of these elements, and Stu-art's Dyspepsia Tablets supply it. They are no cheap cathartic, but a perfectly them is greater than the sale of all other so-called dyspepsia cures combined. No remedy could possibly reach such a place in public esteem exept as the result of positive merit. Full-sized packages are sold by all druggists 50 cents, and the best habit you can possibly form is to take a Stuart Tablet after each meal. They make weak stomachs strong and keep strong stom-

AFFAIRS IN ALEXANDRIA AT THE WHITE HOUSE

General John M. Palmer Sees President McKinley.

HE PREDICTS BRYAN'S NOMINATION

Mr. Overstreet Says There Will Be No Gold Democratic Ticket.

ADMIRAL DEWEY CALLS

Two national figures in the presidential campaign of 1896 were at the White House today. They were ex-Senator John M. Palmer and ex-Representative Josiah Patterson of Tennessee. They were not together and saw the President separately cemetery. Owing to its connection, it is a Each said that his visit was purely personal. Gen. Palmer has not been to the White House in two years, the last time he was there being for the purpose of asking that a certain man in his home town be appointed postmaster. With this exception it is said that the gold democratic leader has asked few, if any, favors at the White House, although President McKinley stood ready to grant what might be requested. When asked for his political views Gen. Palmer said:

Democratic Party in Bad Shape. "The democratic party is in bad shape, but I think it will get all right before long. No, I do not believe the gold and silver democrats will get together next year Bryan will be nominated by the silver democrats and we won't vote for him. That is the way I see it now. The democrats ought to nominate another man acceptable to all concerned, but I haven't an idea they will General Palmer did not care to predict whether the gold democrats would put up a presidential ticket next year. It would be difficult to say now. Predicts Bryan's Nomination. When General Palmer predicted the nomination of Bryan, and said the gold democrats would not vote for him, he was asked if this would be the attitude of the gold democrats in case free silver was not the paramount issue next year; in case that question was relegated to a less prominent place. General Palmer shrugged hi shoulders and asserted that the platform would make little difference. "Bryan's name and his history would be sufficient to emphasize free silver," he said. No Possibility of Bryan's Election. A few days ago Gen. Palmer was quoted as saying that, on account of the anti-imperialism sentiment, the trusts, etc., he thought Bryan was sure of nomination and election in 1900.

Mr. Palmer said today that he had evidently been misunderstood. He had said that Bryan was sure of the nomination, but had not suggested the possibility that he might be elected. "Nothing that can come up," he said, "can obscure the real issue of the cam-paign with Bryan as the democratic candi#### date. The people cannot be blinded to the real issue, which is silver 16 to 1, and I do not think there is any possibility of Bryan's election." General Palmer looked to be in splendid health. So did Josiah Patterson.

Mr. Patterson Out of Politics. Mr. Patterson might have been in the House now but for his financial views. He was punished by the democrats of Memphis for being in the minority, and, in his own language, is "out of politics." despite the fact that he was a useful man and had taken a high position in the House. "I'm still a goldbug," he said to a Star repre-sentative, "but I'm practicing law and am out of politics."

It is said that when Mr. Patterson asserted that he was out of politics he re-ferred merely to the fact that he was not publicly engaged in political engineering. Mr. Patterson has a scheme for next year, however, and outlined it to the President this morning. The scheme provides that there shall be no ticket of the gold demothis morning. The scheme provides that there shall be no ticket of the gold demo crats next year, but that an executive com-mittee shall be appointed which shall look after congressional candidates in districts where it is thought advisable to put them in the field.

Mr. Patterson is a candidate for membership on the Shiloh Park commission, which will make a national park of the battle-field of Shiloh. There are numerous other candidates from Tennessee. Among these are Gen. Marcus J. Wright, Col. Harvey Mathes and Gen. D. C. Govan. Mr. Patterson was a confederate soldier and thinks that he stands a good chance of selection No Gold Democratic Ticket. Representative Overstreet of Indianapolis visited the President this morning to thank him for the appointment of Mr. Bynum as a member of the board of general appraisers at New York. Mr. Overstreet asked the appointment of the man who conducted the camprign of the gold democrats in 1896. Mr. Overstreet knows Mr. Bynum intimately, and when asked this morning if he thought the gold democrats would put up a presidential ticket next year, said: "No, I do not. I think Congress will en-act legislation at the coming session which will make the gold standard permanent by law. This will please the gold democrats, as the appointment of Mr. Bynum pleased them. They will see that we are keeping faith with them, and instead of putting out Admiral Dewey a Caller. Admiral Dewey was with President Mc-Kinley some time this morning. It is said that the President talked to him about the Philippine portion of the message which will soon go to Congress. The admiral himself did not care to discuss his business at the Executive Mansion. "I'm still in the house," he said, in a good-humored way.

"No, I won't talk. I talk too much, anyway." The admiral smiled and went on.

Some of the Other Callers. Attorney General Griggs returned from Paterson, N. J., this morning, and went to the White House to give the President a message from Mrs. Hobart, who is bearing up well under her affliction. Mr. Hope Darneille, the disbursing officer of the District, was at the White House to secure the name of the officer of the 3d Infantry who was killed in the Philippines a few days ago. Commissioner Ross feared that his son, Lleut. Tenny Ross, might have been the officer whose life was lost. At the White House it was learned that the dead officer was Lieut. Maxwell Keys of Company L, Lieut. Ross' company. Lleut. Keys graduated from West Point in June learner.

Charles W. Otis, representing the committee in charge of the Typographical Temple fair, saw the President today to again urge him to attend the fair, which opens tonight in Typographical Temple. The President expressed his sincere regrets, and aid that, owing to the death of Vice President Hobart, he had canceled all engage-ments for public appearances. He men-tioned the strong affection he had for the Vice President, and said that the cabinet agreed with him that they should, as far as possible, honor the memory of the dead official for a given period. The President said that he fully intended to go to the fair on the opening night. Samon's Former Chief Justice. Mr. Chambers, the former chief justice #### of Samoa, was at the White House today. He discussed Samoan affairs with the Pres ident. It is understood that the President will discuss this subject to a considerable extent in his message, and that there were some facts on which he desired detailed information. He talked with Mr. Chambers about this information. Secretary Hay has also talked at length with Mr. afe and efficient digestive, and the demand for hambers.

It is said to be probable that President McKinley will appoint Mr. Chambers as a federal judge in Alabama when Judge Bruce retires, in about a year. The repub-licans want some other man appointed, but the President is favorable to Mr. Cham-
